PART II—Section 2
Bills and Reports of Select Committees on Bills

PARLIAMENT OF INDIA

The following Bill was introduced in Parliament on the 18th May, 1951:—

BILL No. *50 OF 1951

A Bill further to amend the Sea Customs Act, 1878 and the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944,

Be it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Sea Customs and the Central Excises and Salt (Amendment) Act, 1951.

2. Amendment of section 20, Act VIII of 1878.—Section 20 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply in respect of all goods belonging to the Government of a Part A State or a Part B State and used for the purposes of a trade or business of any kind carried on by, or on behalf of, that Government or of any operations connected with such trade or business as they apply in respect of goods not belonging to any Government.”

3. Amendment of section 38, Act VIII of 1878.—After the proviso to section 38 of the principal Act, the following further proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that where a shipping bill is delivered in anticipation of the arrival of any vessel or before an order is given under section 61 for entry of the vessel outwards, it shall, for the purpose of this section, be deemed to have been delivered on the date on which that vessel arrives or that order is given, whichever is later.”

*The President has, in pursuance of clause (1) of article 117 of the Constitution of India, recommended to Parliament the introduction of the Bill.

4. Amendment of section 39, Act VIII of 1878.—In section 39 of the principal Act, for the words "on demand being made" the words "on a notice of demand being issued to him" shall be substituted.

5. Amendment of section 111, Act VIII of 1878.—In section 111 of the principal Act, after the words "penalties, interest" the words "export duties" shall be inserted.

6. Amendment of section 3, Act I of 1944.—After sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(1A) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply in respect of all excisable goods other than salt which are produced or manufactured in India by, or on behalf of, the Government of a Part A State or a Part B State and used for the purposes of a trade or business of any kind carried on by, or on behalf of, that Government, or of any operations connected with such trade or business as they apply in respect of goods which are not produced or manufactured by any Government."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Prior to the commencement of the Constitution, customs duties were levied on all goods imported or exported by State Governments unless specifically exempted under section 23 of the Sea Customs Act. Central excise duties were also payable by all State Governments on all excisable goods produced or manufactured in undertakings carried on by them or on their behalf. The liability was extended to Part B States also on their financial integration by the extension to them of the Central Taxation Laws. Article 289(1) of the Constitution, however, exempts the property and income of a State from Union taxation, leaving it to Parliament under clause (2) of the article to regulate the imposition or continuance of such taxes.

2. The present Bill seeks to amend the Sea Customs Act, 1878, and the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944, in order to restore the pre-existing position authorising the levy of customs duties and Central excise duties on all goods which are used for the purposes of trade or business carried on by or on behalf of the Government of a Part A State or a Part B State (as distinct from the purposes incidental to the ordinary functions of Government). Opportunity has also been taken to incorporate in the Bill certain amendments to the Sea Customs Act, 1878, to remove defects that have come to notice in the application of that Act as regards levy of export duties and issue of notice of demand for short recoveries of tax.

MAHAVIR TYAGI.

NEW DELHI;

The 9th May, 1951.

Notes on Clauses

1. Clause 2.—This seeks to remove the legal bar under Article 289(1) of the Constitution to the continued levy of customs duties on goods imported or exported by or on behalf of a State Government and used for the purposes trade or business of any kind.

2. Clause 3.—Export duty is ordinarily levied at the rate prevalent on the date of delivery of the shipping bill. Where for the convenience of the trade, exporters are allowed to deliver shipping bills in advance of the arrival of the vessel, it is proposed, in order to safeguard the interests of revenue where the export duty is enhanced after such prior acceptance of the shipping bill, that the shipping bill should be deemed to be delivered only on the date when the vessel arrives or an order is given for entry of the vessel outwards, whichever is later.

3. Clause 4.—This clause seeks to clarify the point from which the time limit for recovery of short levy of customs duties is due to be computed.

4. Clause 5.—This removes a lacuna in section 111 of the Sea Customs Act and provides for the levy of export duties which have been imposed on goods that had remained warehoused on importation, that is, had been bonded on importation without payment of import duty.

5. Clause 6.—This clause seeks to remove the legal bar under Article 289(1) of the Constitution to the continued levy of central excise duties on goods produced or manufactured in an undertaking carried on by or on behalf of a State Government and used for the purposes of trade or business of any kind.

The following Bills were introduced in Parliament on the 22nd May, 1951:—

BILL No. 51 OF 1951

A Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Indian Merchant Shipping (Amendment) Act, 1951.

2. Insertion of new sections 26A and 26B in Act XXI of 1923.—In the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, under the heading "Engagement of Seamen" and before section 27, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"26A. Medical examination of seamen.—(1) Subject to the provisions of any rules made under sub-section (3), no person shall engage or carry to sea any seaman to work in any capacity in any ship unless the seaman is in possession of a certificate in the prescribed form granted by the prescribed authority to the effect that he is physically fit to be employed in that capacity.

(2) If any person engages or carries to sea any seaman in contravention of sub-section (1), he shall, for each seaman in respect of whom the offence is committed, be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this section, and, in particular and without prejudice to the generality of such power, any rules so made may provide for—

(a) the standard of physical fitness required of seamen, and different standards may be laid down in different cases or for different classes of seamen, having regard to the age of the seamen to be examined or the nature of the duties to be performed by them;

(b) the nature of the medical examination of seamen, the authorities by which the examination shall be conducted and the fees payable therefor;

(c) the form and contents of medical certificates and the period of their validity;

(d) the re-examination by such medical authority as may be specified of persons who have been refused medical certificates of physical fitness in the first instance and the fees payable for such re-examination;

(e) the circumstances in which or the conditions subject to which any seaman or class of seamen may be exempted from the operation of sub-section (1).

26B. Qualifications for seamen.—(1) From such date as may be fixed in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette, no seaman shall be engaged or carried to sea to work in any capacity in any ship unless he possesses the prescribed qualifications.

(2) If any person engages or carries to sea any seaman in contravention of sub-section (1), he shall, for each seaman in respect of whom the offence is committed, be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this section, and, in particular and without prejudice to the generality of such power, any rules so made may provide for—

- (a) the courses of training to be pursued, or
- (b) the vocational standards to be attained, or
- (c) the tests to be passed, by seamen generally or by any class of seamen in particular.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 87D of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (XXI of 1923), provides for the medical examination of young persons below 18 years of age only, before they can be engaged or carried to sea to work in any capacity in any ship. In order to ensure the recruitment of proper persons who are both physically and otherwise fit for the performance of their duties, it is necessary to provide for the medical examination of all persons who may wish to join the seafaring profession and to prescribe their qualifications.

2. The standards of medical examination of, and the tests to be passed by, seamen will have to be sufficiently flexible in the first instance and, consequently, the Bill leaves the matter to be regulated by rules made in this behalf, the subjects on which rules may be made being set out in the Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the Constitution of India, the subject matter relatable to the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, 1904, has been distributed as follows :—

List I, entry 67.—Ancient and historical monuments and records, and archaeological sites and remains declared by Parliament by law to be of national importance.

List II, entry 12.—Ancient and historical monuments and records other than those declared by Parliament by law to be of national importance.

List III, entry 40.—Archæological sites and remains other than those declared by Parliament by law to be of national importance.

2. In view of entry 12 in List II, it is essential that legislation should be promoted in terms of entry 67 in List I, as otherwise the supervision and control, now exercised by the Central Government in respect of important ancient monuments, can be appropriated by the States under laws made by their Legislatures in terms of entry 12 of List II. Nor can the Central Government take necessary action for the protection and care of such monuments, sites and remains in Part B States until legislation in terms of entry 67 of List I has been enacted.

3. The present Bill, therefore, seeks to make the necessary declaration in terms of entry 67 of List I in respect of such ancient and historical monuments and archæological sites and remains which are of national importance.

NEW DELHI ;

ABUL KALAM AZAD.

The 16th May, 1951.
